PERCEPTION & PERFORMANCE

Voluntary stimulus generalization as a three-category judgment process by F. D. McGuirk and J. A. Hébert, 53

Estimation of signal detection theory parameters from rating-method data: A comparison of the method of scoring and direct search by D. D. Dorfman, L. L. Beavers, and C. Saslow, 207

A new psychophysical ratio scaling technique: Random production by W. P. Banks, 273

Transitivity and the patterns of adult preferences by H. Bradbury and T. M. Nelson, 337

Sensory Processes

Backward masking and enhancement of multisegmented visual targets by W. N. Dember, W. D. Mathews, and M. Stefl, 45

The discrimination of bimodal temporal gaps by R. Rousseau and A. B. Kristofferson, 115

Intersensory integration and reading ability in the deaf by D. V. Allen and R. K. Rothman, 199

Decrease in field dependence following rapid eye movement sleep by J. M. De Koninck, D. Koulack, and C. Oczkowski, 257

Arousal & Attention

Listening time and the short-term perceptual deprivation effect by J. R. Levine, A. Pettit, and B. T. Leckart, 11

Determinants of reaction time for digit inequality judgments by R. S. Moyer and T. K. Landauer, 167

Motivation in vigilance: A test of the goal-setting hypothesis of the effectiveness of knowledge of results by J. S. Warm, S. W. Riechmann, A. F. Grasha, and B. Seibel, 291

The effects of low and high levels of vigilance on subsequent visual exploratory behavior in humans by R. L. Durham and J. C. Nunnally, 313

Information Processing

Cognitive masking: The disruptive effect of an emotional stimulus upon the perception of contiguous neutral items by M. H. Erdelyi and A. G. Appelbaum, 59

Similarity and the false recognition of prototypes by A. S. Levy and S. Heshka, 181

Judgments of verticality and response availability by P. H. K. Seymour, 196

Information processing in the visual periphery by J. R. Antes and D. C. Edwards, 351

Visual information processing of numerical inputs by D. M. Levine, S. Wachspress, P. McGuire, and M. S. Mayzner, 404

HUMAN LEARNING, MEMORY, & THINKING

The effect of a ready signal on the relationship between habit and drive variables in human eyelid conditioning by W. C. Gordon and R. H. Dufort, 117

Discrimination Learning

Stimulus dimensionality and discrimination learning in elementary schoolchildren by C. F. Etaugh and B. R. Ankney, 110

Self-recognition in profoundly retarded males by T. F. Pechacek, K. F. Bell, C. C. Cleland, C. Baum, and M. Boyle, 328

Cue utilization as a function of monetary incentive and learning efficiency by J. S. Cohen, G. A. Telegdy, J. P. Laroche, and Y. Getz, 452

Effects of drive level on cue utilization of spatially separated redundant relevant cues by J. S. Cohen and B. Sullivan, 455

Latency patterns in category judgments by F. D. McGuirk and J. A. Hébert, 457

Verbal Learning

Associative matching and cumulative proactive inhibition by B. J. Underwood, P. K. Broder, and J. Zimmerman, 48

Stimulus selection and meaningfulness following a single opportunity to rehearse each paired associate by F. M. Berry, D. A. Sherrod, and L. E. Love, 209

The effects of differing forms of blank feedback on response repetition in paired-associate learning by D. C. Rimm and K. LaPointe, 244

Temporal set and cue selectivity in paired-associate learning accompanying changes of the stimulus component duration by S. S. Mo and K. Ward, 443

An information integration approach to serial effects in verbal discrimination learning by I. P. Levin and K. L. Norman, 450

Reinforcement

ECS effects: An attempt to stimulate recovery of the PRE by A. G. Young and G. D. Fuselier, 322

Fixed-ratio responding with human subjects by R. F. Wallace and D. W. Mulder, 359

The rational zero point and reinforcement by W. L. Croll, 431

Memory

Suppression of perceptual organization in the auditory mode by the presence of visual stimuli by J. O. Spencer, 31

Improved recognition with feedback: Discriminability and range-frequency effects by B. Tabachnick and A. Parducci, 56

Modality-specific short-term storage for pressure by D. L. Schurman, I. H. Bernstein, and R. W. Proctor, 71

An analysis of short-term memory in familial mental retardates by R. J. Nolan and G. H. Hughes, 173

Encoding variability in mediated transfer by J. H. Mueller, 175

Memory storage in free recall learning as a function of arousal and time with homogeneous and heterogeneous lists by F. H. Farley, 187

The effects of isolated imagery on free recall by H. A. Bernbach and P. M. Stalonas, 227

Aging adults and rate of memory scan by C. W. Eriksen, R. M. Hamlin, and C. Daye, 259

Accuracy of recognition memory for common sounds by D. M. Lawrence and W. P. Banks, 298

Relative effects of acoustic and semantic relatedness on clustering in free recall by D. Long and G. A. Allen, 316

Long-term visual traces of visually presented words by D. L. Hintzman and J. J. Summers, 325

Long-term memory following serial discrimination reversal learning by W. H. Calhoun and G. W. Handley, 354

More on imagery and the recall of adjectives and nouns

from meaningful prose by C. De Vito and A. M. Olson, 397
Effects of overt rehearsal on recall of paired associates by S. Madigan, 423

Verbal Processes

Continued associations to homographs by D. H. Kausler and S. F. Kollasch, 17
Word coding: The role of intrinsic and extrinsic features by D. L. Nelson, 241
The effects of physical and psychological stress on the performance of high- and low-anxious Ss on a difficult verbal discrimination task by E. Shearer and F. E. Fulkerson, 255
A replication of Bransford and Franks' (1971) "The abstraction of linguistic ideas" by M. Singer, 416

Concept Learning

Induced dimensional set and concept learning by D. Fernandez, 261
Role of relevant, irrelevant, and redundant information in simple concept transfer by L. A. Low, J. Fortier, W. Mickalide, D. Page, and D. Troumpalos, 267
Relevant redundancy in disjunctive concept learning by C. R. Kahrs and R. C. Haygood, 335
Intellectual and conceptual acquisition in retarded children: A follow-up study by L. I. Jacobson, G. Bernal, L. E. Greeson, J. J. Rich, and J. Millham, 340

Social Processes

The relationship between personality impression formation and sex: An application of information integration theory by W. Combest, K. Kasten, and J. P. Shaffer, 2
Attraction and reactions to noncontingent promises by L. Ayers, P. Nacci, and J. T. Tedeschi, 75
The inhibitory effects of an observer on instrumental aggression by M. C. Dertke, L. A. Penner, H. L. Hawkins, and C. Suarez, 112
Attractiveness as a result of having certain personality traits by J. Spivey and W. Wilson, 229
Effects of the subject's awareness of the nature of the experiment upon conformity behavior by P. J. Wagner and M. E. Shaw, 235
Polarization in impression formation as a function of affect and range dispersion by L. P. Richardson, 289
Attitude commitment: Its impact on the similarity-attraction relationship by R. Veitch and W. Griffitt, 295
Experimenter effects in monitoring performance by W. L. Waag, D. M. Tyler, and C. G. Halcomb, 387
The influences of normative information on human judgmental processes by J. Gormly, 414
Trust and reactions to threats by P. Nacci and J. T. Tedeschi, 421
Transitivity of social choice: Developmental considerations by A. H. Schulman, 425
A note on the use of prisons as environments for investigation of crowding by P. Paulus, G. McCain, and V. Cox, 427

ANIMAL BEHAVIOR

Conditioning

Stimulus intensity and trace intervals in sensory preconditioning using the CER by J. D. Rogers, 107
Differential conditioning along two dimensions and stimulus generalization of the rabbit's nictitating membrane response by J. W. Moore and F. W. Mis, 123
Spinal conditioning by M. M. Patterson, C. F. Cegavske, and R. F. Thompson, 139
Operant responding in the common crow (Corvus brachyrhynchos) by R. W. Powell, 401

Discrimination Learning

Stimulus control in the albino rat as a function of extradimensional discrimination training by J. Lyons, J. D. Lyons, and W. D. Klipec, 9
Measures of stimulus control and stimulus dominance by D. Meltzer and M. A. Masaki, 28
Acquisition of a temperature discrimination in neonatal dogs by W. E. Bacon, 65
Transfer after pattern discrimination in primates by D. Robbins, 101
Memory in the pigeon: Retroactive inhibition in a delayed matching task by T. R. Zentall, 126
Information processing of olfactory stimuli by the dog: I. The acquisition and retention of four odor-pair discriminations by R. E. Lubow, M. Kahn, and R. Frommer, 143
Generalization of wavelength matching to novel stimulus combinations by K. Malott, J. T. Northrop, and R. W. Griffen, 178
Control by an irrelevant stimulus in discrete-trial discrimination learning by pigeons by V. A. Gray and N. J. Mackintosh, 193
Performance of the pigeon on the ambiguous-cue problem by R. W. Richards, 445

Maze & Runway Behavior

Reversal learning as a function of length of the deprivation schedule and the amount of training by D. Hargrave, F. Wood, and C. L. Richman, 15
Replication report: No spontaneous alternation in gerbils by G. Greenberg, 141
Effect of turn preference upon development of discriminated T-maze training ability of infant mice by Z. M. Nagy, 441

Avoidance & Punishment

The effects of a sudden reduction in anticipated "relief" by P. J. Woods, 5
Free-operant (Sidman) avoidance in reciprocally cross-fostered wild and domesticated rats by R. W. Powell, 41
The effect of electric shock upon a nonlocomotor measure of exploration by B. Gillen, 121
The effect of rotation on the learning of taste aversions by L. Green and H. Rachlin, 137
CS familiarization and conditioned suppression in weanling and adult albino rats by L. M. Wilson and D. C. Riccio, 184
A further demonstration of the learned safety effect in food-aversion learning by R. C. Bolles, A. L. Riley, and B. Laskowski, 190
The effect of handling habituation on the acquisitioand retention of an avoidance response (Kamin effect) in rats by B. McKillop and R. W. Thompson, 225
"Strain" differences in illness-induced taste aversion by R. Ader, 253
Avoidance of a warning signal as a function of the signal termination contingency by P. Lewis and P. Badia, 301
Effects of shock intensity on avoidance responding in a shuttlebox to serial CS procedures by D. J. Levis and T. L. Boyd, 304
A failure to transfer control of keypecking from food reinforcement to escape from and avoidance of shock by B. Schwartz and G. Coulter, 307
Signaled escape and signaled punishment: Additional instrumental conditioning paradigms by P. J. Woods, 310

Avoidance conditioning in two species of platy (Xiphophorus maculatus and Xiphophorus variatus) by E. W. C. McAllister, 389
Food deprivation and free-operant avoidance in the pigeon by P. Griffin, H. D. Medearis, and W. R. Hughes, 393
Recovery from punishment related to movement and punishment severity by J. H. Hull and H. E. Klugh, 406

Reinforcement & Extinction

Extinction of avoidance behavior: Comparison of various flooding procedures in rats by M. Baum, 22
Negative contrast as a function of the interval between preshift and postshift training by W. C. Gordon, C. F. Flaherty, and E. P. Riley, 25
Disruption of fixed-ratio performance as a function of reinforcement delay by M. A. Bullock and R. W. Richards, 49
A comparison of ratio behavior in the gerbil and white rat by D. A. Vanderweele, R. M. Abelson, and J. A. Tellish, 62
Effects of signaled free reinforcement on concurrent performances by J. Leslie and J. R. Millenson, 97
Terminal extinction performance of a running response following consistent and partial reinforcement and nonreinforcement by R. W. Black, J. Schumpert, and C. Woodard, 104
Performance in differential instrumental conditioning with infrequent S+ presentations by J. H. McHose and G. S. Howard, 132
Click frequency as a stimulus intensity parameter by D. Meltzer, M. A. Masaki, and B. R. Niebuhr, 135
Durable behavior facilitating effects of discriminative stimuli by D. D. Patterson and S. Winokur, 231
Autoshaping pigeons' keypecking with a conditioned reinforcer by D. D. Patterson and S. Winokur, 247
Stimuli and incentives as determinants of the successive negative contrast effect by J. H. McHose, 264
Generalization of a Capaldi sequential analysis to the aversive case by J. H. Reynierse and R. G. Straw, 363
Effect of deprivation state on successive negative contrast by C. F. Flaherty and J. Kelly, 365
A test of Premack's "indifference principle" by R. W. Schaeffer, J. J. Bauermeister, and J. H. David, 399
Effects of reinforcement duration and ratio size on discrete-trials FR responding by S. C. Bitgood and J. R. Platt, 409
Negative contrast in goldfish (Carassius auratus) by T. L. Cochrane, S. R. Scobie, and D. Fallon, 411
Differential eyelid conditioning: The generalization of reinforcement and of nonreinforcement by F. L. Newman, J. C. Francis, A. West, and D. Covey, 433
A methodological critique of research on "superstitious" behavior by H. Davis, J. Hubbard, and D. Reberg, 447

PHYSIOLOGICAL PSYCHOLOGY & ANIMAL BEHAVIOR

Long-term behavioral restriction and adult behavior in the rat by R. L. Russell and R. O. Pihl, 33
Laboratory study of wild rats by R. E. Powell, 119

Brain Functions

ECS effects: The PRE by J. B. Keyes and A. G. Young, 39
Forepaw food pellet grasping and consumption in rats following amygdaloid lesions by E. D. Kemble and G. E. Swenson, 68
Effects of hippocampal lesions on the water consumption of hooded and albino rats by J. J. Boitano, H. G. Abel, G. J. Heine, and G. A. Patrissi, 81
The effects of electroconvulsive shock on extinction by G. L. Dempsey and A. G. Your g, 129
Electroencephalographic and temporal correlates of snoring by I. B. Albert and N. C. Ballas, 169
Absence of stimulus effects in dichotic singing by B. N. Bartholomeus, D. G. Doehring, and S. D. Freygood, 171
The transcephalic dc potential and disjunctive reaction time performance by H. Friedman and H. A. Taub, 202
Interanimal transfer and chemical events underlying the kindling effect by J. Gaito, R. W. Hopkins, and W. Pelletier, 319
Development of open-field activity in the rat following caudate lesions in infancy by D. A. Johnson and T. M. Becker, 331
Human scalp-recorded evoked-potential correlates of linguistic stimuli by T. J. Teyler, R. A. Roemer, T. F. Harrison, and R. F. Thompson, 333
ECS-produced disruption of a go, no-go discrimination in rats by J. B. Keyes, 439

Physiological Effects

The effects of induced nausea upon shock-elicited aggression by D. S. P. Bisbee and D. D. Cahoon, 19
Effects of ethanol on adjunctive drinking and barpressing under various schedules of food reinforcement by R. M. Gilbert, 161
The differential effects of reinforcement and testosterone on aggressive responding in pigeons: Species typical and aversive aspects of pigeon aggression by A. R. Lumia, C. A. Rieder, and J. H. Reynierse, 165
Report on pilot study of effects of DDT on maternal behavior by K. Paulsen, V. J. Adesso, and J. J. Porter, 205
Effect of alcohol on running-wheel activity in rats by A. S. Wilson and R. J. Carter, 233
The effects of scopolamine in preexposure to a learning apparatus by M. J. Grant and R. M. Grant, 238
Suppression and recovery of mouse killing in rats following immediate lithium-chloride injections by M. O'Boyle, T. A. Looney, and P. S. Cohen, 250
Heart rate variability: An autonomic correlate of reaction time performance by S. W. Porges, 270
Effects of food deprivation and initial levels on a wheel-running response to methamphetamine by L. F. Jakubczak and F. E. Gomer, 343
The caudate nucleus and avoidance learning: A reevaluation by R. K. Thomas and A. S. Hill, 346
Brain soluble protein patterns during shock avoidance conditioning by J. Gaito and R. W. Hopkins, 391
Taste aversions and acute methyl mercury poisoning in rats by J. J. Braun and D. R. Snyder, 419
Moderation of severity of audiogenic seizures in DBA/2 mice following intraperitoneal insertion by E. J. Richardson and E. C. Simmel, 429
Mercuric chloride influence on active-avoidance acquisition in rats by S. B. Klein and E. J. Atkinson, 437

Motivation & Emotion

Circadian locomotor activity in the Virginia opossum by D. M. Cone, 13
Visual exploratory behavior in the pigeon by J. M. Stahl, R. A. O'Brien, and P. V. Hanford, 35
The effects of litter size on emotional reactivity in BALB/c mice by R. C. LaBarba, J. L. White, A. Stewart, and N. Buckley, 37
Wheel-running activity during ad lib and food-deprivation conditions in four inbred mouse strains by J. P. Symons, 78

Effect of maintenance schedule on the relationship between alley speeds and preexperimental deprivation periods by R. L. Benefield and D. Ehrenfreund, 293
Mouse killing or carrying by male and female Long-Evans hooded rats by D. J. Lonowski, R. A. Levitt, and S. D. Larson, 349
Cool water suppression of water intake: One day does not a winter make by R. M. Gold, 385
Age differences in caloric-density preference as a function of strain of rats by L. F. Jakubczak, 395

Notes & News, 355

Current Literature, 52, 115, 175, 243, 307, 436

PERCEPTION & PERFORMANCE

Complexity ratings of digit strings and their pictorial analogs by D. W. Ohman and P. C. Vitz, 45

The influence of time course variables on REM sleep by H. W. Agnew, Jr., and W. B. Webb, 131

Influence of pause duration on the reproduction of a 2-second interval by E. Pöppel, 291

Sensory Processes

Effects of size of ring on backward masking of a disk by a ring by K. C. Kao and W. N. Dember, 15

Judgment of rod verticality as a function of subject classification and frame pattern by H. A. Cross, 23

Simultaneous visual adaptation to tilt and displacement: A test of independent processes by G. M. Redding, 41

Measurement of lingual vibrotactile sensitivity using pulsed and continuous stimulation by D. J. Fucci, D. J. Arnst, K. M. Telage, and P. McCaffrey, 85

Signal detection analysis of the effects of sequence duration on auditory matching to sample by D. G. Doehring, 107

Binocular rivalry and binocular brightness averaging in the Craik-O'Brien illusion by H. F. Crovitz, 157

Hemiretinae and nonmonotonic masking functions with overlapping stimuli by C. F. Michaels and M. T. Turvey, 163

Constancy scaling and the brackets illusion by G. Stanley and A. C. Graesser, 198

The role of contour and location mechanisms in the Mueller-Lyer illusion by R. B. Howard and M. Wagner, 235

Simple means of augmenting stereoscopic vision by R. L. Folk, 242

A comparison of response modes on the perception of linear extent by H. R. Schiffman, 276

Figural aftereffects as optical illusions? Failure to replicate two results by R. B. Howard, 392

Attention

Subroutines and visual line information processing by J. Friedmann and M. S. Mayzner, 139

Selective attention and dimensional learning: A logical analysis of two-stage attention theories by D. R. Anderson, D. G. Kemler, and B. E. Shepp, 273

A model of selective perception: The effect of presenting alternatives before or after the stimulus by K. Gummerman, 365

Visual information processing of numerical inputs by D. M. Levine, S. Wachspress, P. McGuire, and M. S. Mayzner, 1973, Vol. 1, 404-406
Errata, 430

HUMAN MEMORY, LEARNING, & THINKING

Response sequences following "wrongs" in a concept task by J. L. Bresnahan and M. M. Shapiro, 193

Reinforcement in children: Received and expected by J. L. Bresnahan, J. P. Hillard, and M. M. Shapiro, 195

Response variability for humans receiving continuous, intermittent, or no positive experimenter feedback by D. A. Eckerman and R. Vreeland, 297

Differential skin conductance condition as a function of interstimulus interval by W. R. Jenson and W. F. Prokasy, 397

Discrimination Learning

The effects of discrimination training on the recognition of white and oriental faces by E. S. Elliott, E. J. Wills, and A. G. Goldstein, 71

Children's discrimination learning as related to delayed punishment by K. L. Witte and R. K. Johnson, 146

Effect of visual and tactual stimulation on learning abstract forms: A replication by J. K. Walsh, 357

Verbal Learning

Reading order and A-B vs B-A performance by B. J. Wilson, 39

Paired-associate learning with homograph stimuli by C. T. James and W. J. Boeck, 81

Serial learning and filled and unfilled delay intervals: Effects of informative feedback contingencies by S. S. Rakover and M. Maon, 87

The relationship of state-trait anxiety and task difficulty to learning from written discourse by E. P. Johnsen, R. L. Hohn, and K. R. Dunbar, 89

Associative relatedness vs synonymity in the false recognition effect-by D. H. Kausler and A. V. Settle, 129

The effect of frequency and numbers of pairs in a verbal discrimination task by S. Savage and N. J. Kanak, 278

Transfer from serial to paired-associate learning by J. H. Mueller and E. M. Jablonski, 285

The serial position function for lists learned by a narrative-story mnemonic by D. J. Herrmann, F. V. Geisler, and R. C. Atkinson, 377

Effects of stress on mediated paired-associate learning by M. M. Greenwood and L. P. Lipsitt, 427

Memory

Interference and encoding processes by M. Grabe, 13

Effects of stimulus concreteness imagery and arousal on immediate and delayed recall by J. C. Schmitt and W. E. Forrester, 25

Reduction of redundant stimulus information in short-term memory by R. E. Morin, D. S. Konick, and K. L. Hoving, 29

Semantic and acoustic clustering under modified blocked-presentation procedures by W. E. Forrester, 149

Differential retroactive inhibition effects with pictures and words by S. K. Kubose and P. D. Balsam, 169

A comparison of presentation rates using a missing item probe test of immediate memory by N. S. Anderson and V. D. Burns, 200

Effects of types of input structure upon recall and different clustering scores by C. R. Puff, 271

Long-term recognition memory for auditory patterns by I. M. Spigel, M. Novar, and B. Novar, 295

Verbal Processes

Sequential blanking effects for two interleaved words by J. Newmark and M. S. Mayzner, 74

Scanning for presence in simple sentences is influenced by image value of nouns by C. T. James and G. P. Aylward, 171

Context effects in judgment of frequency by E. J. Rowe, 231

English orthography: Relation to reading experience by

L. A. Lefton, A. B. Spragins, and J. Byrnes, 281
Release from proactive interference in compound and coordinate bilinguals by R. F. Dillon, P. D. McCormack, W. M. Petrusic, G. M. Cook, and L. Lafleur, 292
Blink rate and imagined letters by M. Wegmann and R. Weber, 370
The effect of flanking letters and digits on speed of identifying a letter by C. W. Eriksen, R. M. Hamlin, and C. Daye, 400
Effect of letter-pair frequency and orientation of speed of "same"-"different" judgments by children and adults by L. E. Krueger, 431

Social Processes

Bystander intervention: Group size and victim status by V. A. Harris and C. E. Robinson, 8
Opinion change as a function of perceived similarity of the communicator and subjectivity of the issue by J. Mills and C. E. Kimble, 35
The transitivity of children's inferences about preferences by H. Bradbury and T. M. Nelson, 49
Olfactory thresholds and level of anxiety by C. K. Rovee, S. L. Harris, and R. Yopp, 76
Status and sex: Some touching observations by N. M. Henley, 91
The "foot-in-the-door" phenomenon: Mediating effects of size of first request and sex of requester by R. A. Baron, 113
Attractiveness, athleticism, studiousness, brilliance, and wealth by G. Hodo, C. Whitfield, M. Burkhalter, and W. Wilson, 151
A short version of the Attitudes toward Women Scale (AWS) by J. T. Spence, R. Helmreich, and J. Stapp, 219
Anchoring effects of trait range in impression formation by D. D. Simpson, T. M. Ostrom, and L. R. Sloan, 383
An empirical verification of Mednick's associative theory of creativity by A. S. Brown, 429

ANIMAL LEARNING

Discrimination Learning

Spontaneous alternation in adult rabbits by R. N. Hughes, 2
Stimulus generalization following intradimensional discrimination training: Between- and within-test comparisons by T. T. Hirota and T. A. Clarkson, 3
The effect of S— duration upon generalization along angularity and wavelength dimensions by F. Freeman and M. R. Baron, 167
Spatial reversal learning in rats and gerbils by M. A. Carey and G. J. Fischer, 173
Autoshaping accurate discriminations in pigeons by R. Schnaitter and S. Winokur, 379
A note on the negative automaintenance procedure by R. W. Griffin and M. E. Rashotte, 402

Maze & Runway Behavior

Performance to varied reward following continuous reward training in the runway by R. S. Calef, D. C. Hopkins, E. R. McHewitt, and F. R. Maxwell, 103
Stone (1932) revisited: What does his finding of superior maze learning in half-wild rats mean? by R. Boice, 208
Apparent double alternation in the rat: A failure to replicate by S. Pitt, S. F. Davis, and B. R. Brown, 359
Runway performance of normal and anosmic rats as a function of reward magnitude: A preliminary report by B. Marrero, S. F. Davis, and J. D. Seago, 375

Avoidance & Punishment

Conditioned reinforcement via free-operant avoidance scheduling tests by D. Burnstein, 5
Avoidance learning as a function of amount and direction of change in CS intensity without a constant background intensity by J. P. James, P. Ossenkop, and W. W. Mostoway, 18
Acquisition of passive avoidance in rats by R. L. Mellgren, P. W. Willison, and A. L. Dickson, 37
Sex differences in retention of passive avoidance behavior in rats by W. W. Beatty, K. C. Gregoire, and L. L. Parmiter, 99
Effects of changes in shock intensity following extensive training in the discriminated avoidance paradigm by R. D. Olson and S. T. Elder, 105
Two-way shuttle avoidance after simultaneous and staged lateral septal lesions in the rat by F. C. Kouba and M. E. Bussey, 111
Progressive development of avoidance response after training, ECS, and repeated testing by S. J. Sara, 134
Effects of prolonged training, differential housing, and response prevention on persisting avoidance in rats by F. J. Sautter and L. D. Reid, 239
Steep delay of reinforcement gradient in escape conditioning with altruistic reinforcement by R. F. Weiss, J. S. Cecil, and M. J. Frank, 372
Deconditioning persisting avoidance: Spacing counterconditioning periods during response prevention by R. S. Buss and L. D. Reid, 418

Reinforcement

Keypecking by pigeons in an imperfect environment for autoshaping by R. M. Gilbert, 10
Effects of amount of reward on acquisition of a black-white discrimination by R. S. Weisinger, L. F. Parker, and R. C. Bolles, 27
Differential reinforcement of specific lick rates in the rat by S. C. Pierson and R. W. Schaeffer, 31
Housing environments and the barpressing vs freeloading phenomenon in rats by R. D. Tarte, S. G. Townsend, and C. R. Vernon, 69
Reinforcer magnitude effects on a within-subjects reversed PRE by W. B. Pavlik and A. C. Collier, 233
Discrimination learning and behavioral contrast as a function of component duration by J. F. Dickson, Jr., and T. E. Zuehlke, 268
Effects of partial reinforcement (25%) in an autoshaping procedure by F. A. Gonzalez, 299
Reinforcement of ambiguous-cue problem performance under various across trial fixed-ratio schedules by R. W. Richards, 362
Maintenance and autoshaping of keypecking in undeprived pigeons by J. L. Bilbrey, D. D. Patterson, and S. Winokur, 394
Individual organism probability matching with rats in a two-choice task by D. Robbins and P. L. Warner, 405
The effect of two types of baseline training on behavioral contrast and the peak shift by A. A. Dukhayyil and J. E. Lyons, 407
Some interactions in a higher order multiple schedule of reinforcement by R. Schnaitter and S. Winokur, 410
Rats barpress in order to change the rate at which they are fed by G. W. Lawton and S. Winokur, 415
Preference for reward and nonreward odor trails as a function of reinforcement history by J. H. McHose, 420

Extinction

Sex differences in extinction of food-rewarded approach responses by W. W. Beatty and D. A. O'Briant, 97
The effects of prolonged thwarting on instrumental response extinction by H. Glazer, J.-S. Chen, D. Gomez, and A. Amsel, 136

Formation of extinction sets in monkeys by I. Behar, 367
A test for both positive and negative response summation in the pigeon by R. J. Hamm and D. Meltzer, 433

PHYSIOLOGICAL PSYCHOLOGY & ANIMAL BEHAVIOR

Brain Functions

Place learning in hippocampectomized rats by R. P. Plunkett, B. D. Faulds, and R. C. Albino, 79
The lateral pedunculo-nigral area and visual discrimination performance in the white rat by R. Thompson, M. A. Howze, and J. H. Pucheu, 83
Transfer of learned discrimination from peripheral to central auditory stimulation in cats by F. B. Colavita, 109
Visual evoked and emitted potentials and stimulus significance by D. S. Ruchkin and S. Sutton, 144
Failure to form a learned taste aversion in rats with amygdaloid lesions by E. D. Kemble and J. A. Nagel, 155
Disconnecting reticulocortical pathways: Amnestic effects on visual habits in the rat by R. Thompson and J. H. Pucheu, 165
Chemical and electrical stimulation of the rat lateral hypothalamus by N. M. Kirschner and R. A. Levitt, 210
Tests of Lenzer's model of intracranial reinforcement by L. D. Reid, N. J. Casper, and R. S. Smith, 261

Physiological Effects

Lead contamination: Chronic and acute behavioral effects in the albino rat by M. M. Shapiro, J. M. Tritschler, and R. A. Ulm, 94
Differential sensitivity of different discrimination behaviors to the effects of ethanol by F. A. Holloway and R. A. Wansley, 159
Activity and food-restriction effects on gastric glandular lesions in the rat: The activity-stress ulcer by W. P. Paré and V. P. Houser, 213
Long-range effects of castration on mating behavior in the male rat by A. Merari, V. Shoham, G. Molad, and H. Perri, 215
Effects of imipramine on copulatory behavior of male rats by D. V. Lovecky and D. A. Dewsbury, 237
Habituation of cardiac components of the orienting reflex to stimuli repeated at fixed and variable intervals by E. S. Katkin and J. S. Nelson, 263
Effects of Δ^9-tetrahydrocannabinol on stimulus control by J. Lyons, D. P. Ferraro, J. E. Lyons, J. G. Sullivan, and D. Downey, 302
Lack of effect of ribaminol, TCAP, and magnesium pemoline on recovery from neocerebellar damage by S. Reinis, 385
Hydroxylamine interferes with the behavioral response to morphine dependence in mice by S. Reinis, 387
Effects of Δ^9-tetrahydrocannabinol on delayed matching-to-sample choice speeds in chimpanzees by D. M. Grilly and D. P. Ferraro, 413
A preference in rats for cues associated with intoxication by R. W. Black, T. Albiniak, M. Davis, and J. Schumpert, 423
Failure of ACTH to influence avoidance extinction in a one-way avoidance situation by D. Ziskind, M. Baum, and Z. Amit, 425

Motivation & Emotion

Lick rates in New Zealand white rabbits by R. W. Schaeffer and M. David, 43
Effects of sucrose concentrations upon schedule-induced polydipsia using free and response-contingent dry-food reinforcement schedules by W. P. Christian, Jr., R. W. Riester, and R. W. Schaeffer, 65
Instrumental and contingent saccharin-licking in rats: Response deprivation and reinforcement by J. Allison and W. Timberlake, 141
The preference of albino rats for free or response-produced food by G. Atnip and D. Hothersall, 153
Licking response distributions associated with the acquisition of schedule-induced polydipsia by R. W. Schaeffer and C. L. Salzberg, 205
Self-selection of ethanol as wine by rats by R. W. Black and S. Straub, 217
Lick rates in gerbils by R. W. Schaeffer and M. David, 257
Consummatory drinking of the chinchilla by C. K. Burdick and G. A. Luz, 266
Variability in the burst lick rate of albino rats as a function of sex, time of day, and exposure to the test situation by A. L. Cone and D. M. Cone, 283
Food intake as a function of age and food deprivation by L. F. Jakubczak, 304
The consumption of saccharin and glucose solutions by Mongolian gerbils by S. C. Pierson, R. W. Schaeffer, and G. D. King, 389

Social & Abnormal Behavior

Social attraction among and between albino and hooded rats by B. Latané, J. Edwards, C. Steele, and D. Walton, 20
The effect of early social isolation on imitative pecking in young chicks: The influence of repeated exposure to the testing situation by D. Dorr and J. G. May, Jr., 101
Long-term stability of pairwise social dominance in squirrel monkeys by D. L. Clark, K. L. Kessler, and J. E. Dillon, 203
Shock-elicited behaviors in paired gerbils by R. Boice and A. Pickering, 221
Preliminary observations on the development of dominance in partial-isolation-reared monkeys (Macaca irus) by R. Karrer and L. Dekker, 225
Reliability of social dominance in guinea pigs by P. L. Bates, D. J. Langenes, and D. L. Clark, 229
Schedule-induced aggression against a slide-image target by R. K. Flory and B. B. Ellis, 287
